Words and Music by Ben Dickinson

Capo: 4 Key of B

Verse 1:

[I] They say to be a [IV] father, is one of [I] life's greatest [IV] gifts
But you [I] never really [IV] know, until you've [VIm] lived through [V] it
They say to [I] be loved by a [IV] woman, warms a [I] man like the [IV] sun
But you [I] never really [IV] know, until the [VIm] wrinkles [V] come
They say the [I] greatest love of [IV] all, is [I] one without [IV] condition
[I] This we [IV] know, it's [VIm] what we were [V] given

CHORUS

Verse 2:

[I] Do you sit and [IV] wonder, about [I] things he kept [IV] inside
Am I [I] someone he was [IV] proud of, did he [VIm] feel my love [V] sometimes May those [I] thoughts be like [IV] a feather, you [I] toss into the [IV] wind it [I] floats to the [IV] yonder, and [VIm] never seen [V] again

Verse 3:

[I] Can I ask you for a [IV] favor, [I] one last thing for [IV] me.
[I] Pull out a tube of [IV] chap stick and a [VIm] peppermint [V] candy
[I] Grab a brush with [IV] healthy hands, [I] stand on bones pain [IV] free
[I] Do one more [IV] painting, of [VIm] exactly what you [V] see

CHORUS

[IV] We are bound by [I] this river
[IV] Cast like a [I] fly
[IV] Floating on the [I] current
[V] 'til we're yanked up to the sky
[IV] Now the water it [I] flows different
[IV] And some fish no [I] longer bite
[VIm] It's the song of the [IV] river
[V] our father's lulla [I] by
[VIm] It's the song of the [IV] river
[V] our family lulla [I] by
