

The Fall

Words and music by Ben Dixon

Capo: 5th Fret / Key of C

Verse I:

[I] Dive bar on broadway, [IV] Gin and ver- mouth
[I] She asked [VI]me to [IV] bury the truth
[I] She was very persuasive [IV] I couldn't say no
[I] She bought [VI]another round and [IV] told me how it would go
[I] I jumped the pot holes [IV] crawled through the mud.
[I] Lived the [VI]story, swept the truth [IV] under the rug

Chorus:

[I] Now fancy, people [IV] they can mingle
[I] revel in the good [IV] family name
And she'll [I] look sweet, [IV] just like the angel,
[VI] sitting on top of [V] the Christmas tree
[IV] Smiles and [V] clapping, [I] a (G/B) wink [VI] and a wave, [IV] and,
I [V] took the [I] fall
[VI] after all [V] for her [IV] I'm happy to take the [I] Fall

Harmonica break: [I] [IV] [I] [IV] [V] [IV] [I] [I]

Verse II:

[I] End less glamour [IV] and all the vanity,
[I] double D [VI]implants a belly [IV] button ring
[I] appetite for penance [IV] sex for self esteem
[I] liar, liar [VI] pants soaked [IV] in kerosene
[I] Finger prints. Mug shots [IV] and nasty names,
[I] when the heat [VI] got hot, [IV] I went down in flames
